

EONS ADVISORY COUNCIL MEETING BRUSSELS, NOVEMBER 17th 2007

The strategic work of this meeting is so that we at EONS can explore how health care is changing in Europe and how we should begin to address the changes in future health services provision for cancer patients. We will be working on strategic direction for EONS in the forthcoming years, and we would like you to bring views and ideas of projects that may help in addressing these challenges.

AGENDA for the EONS Advisory committee meeting, Saturday November 17th

17th November

9.30 Introduction and welcome to the advisory meeting: Sara Faithfull

1. Minutes from the last meeting
2. Matters arising
3. Charity commission report 2007
4. ecco

Questions arising

10.30 Refreshment break

11.00 New EONS roles and board positions

1. Executive director's report
2. Overview of achievements of EONS in past 2 years of CARE strategy
3. Action plans

Questions arising

Any other business

12.30 Lunch

13.30 Chair S. Faithfull, Speaker: Prof. Petra Riemer-Hommel

Challenging future values in EU health care cancer provision

This presentation is about the changing health care arena at a macro level/ patient focus versus cost rationing and the move of health services from acute to community settings.

Discussion and questions:

14.30-15.30: Workshop activity with refreshment break at 15.00:

- A) Enhancing the cancer workforce: migration/ workforce redesign/ skills and education for nurses (Chair Sara Faithfull)
- B) Planning for future cancer care provision: Developing the evidence base/ social issues, communication (Chair Yvonne Wengstrom)
- C) Action for change: leadership/ health care managers/ organisational change (Chair Sultan Kav)

15.30 Summary and conclusion: S Faithfull

16.00 Farewells