

Constitution of the European Oncology Nursing Society

1. ESTABLISHMENT

The Society is established and will be known as the European Oncology Nursing Society (herein referred to as 'the Society').

2. PURPOSE

The mission of the Society is:

- 2.1 The advancement of education of nurses engaged in caring for patients with cancer.
- 2.2 The relief of individuals suffering from cancer by improving the nursing care received by such individuals.

In furtherance of the above the Society may:

- 2.3 Promote and develop oncology nursing in countries throughout Europe.
- 2.4 Promote and co-ordinate educational programmes for nurses engaged in caring for patients with cancer.
- 2.5 Identify and build a corpus of knowledge specific to cancer nursing.
- 2.6 Encourage the development of and participation in collaborative research and the publication of useful results from any such research.
- 2.7 Encourage exchange programmes for nurses in cancer care.
- 2.8 Provide a means of communication between oncology nursing groups and individuals engaged in cancer nursing.
- 2.9 Establish links with other organisations that may influence the development of oncology nursing.
- 2.10 Do all such other lawful things as are necessary for the attainment of the said purpose.

3. MEMBERSHIP

Membership of the Society consist of:

- 3.1 Full members
Associate members
Honorary members
Patrons (sustaining members)
- 3.2 Full membership will be restricted to national cancer nursing societies, pan-European specialist nursing groups involved in cancer care and nurses electing to pay an individual membership fee to the Society. Individual members of national cancer nursing societies and pan-European specialist nursing groups which are members of the Society are also deemed to be de facto members of the Society. Members of the Society will be actively engaged in cancer care, cancer nursing education, cancer nursing management or cancer nursing research within the geographical area of Europe.
- 3.3 Members who do not comply with the Constitution and Bye-laws shall be excluded from the Society.
- 3.4 Every member will have the right to terminate their membership of the Society at any time by means of a registered letter sent to the President. Members failing to pay their membership fee will be deemed to have left the society after a period of one year and will only be reinstated on payment of the full membership fee for the year in which they reapply or any part thereof.

4. STRUCTURES OF THE SOCIETY

The Society encompasses the following bodies:
