

Position Statement on Research

EONS believes that research is essential to enhancing the quality and delivery of evidence based cancer care for patients and their families across Europe.

The Research Working Group will provide a forum through which research expertise can be shared, in order to support and develop research capacity and capability in EONS members.